TERMS AND CONDITIONS

We at Frame USA, Inc. sell our products by phone, through external sales representatives, and under several different websites. Some of those websites are wholesale requiring minimum purchases while others are retail sites with no minimum. Some sites only manufacture to order, while others sell frames that are in stock. Because of these differences, not all terms and conditions apply to all modes of purchase. Please take care to note the exceptions.

Returns Policy (note exceptions below): Because our products are manufactured custom for your order, returns are not generally accepted. In some cases, where merchandise could be resold to another party, returns may be considered; however, prior authorization is required. We will not accept any returns on custom size products. Please contact our Customer Service Department at 1-800-577-5920 to discuss a return. Do not send back merchandise without prior authorization or it will be refused.

If a return is authorized:

- A 25% restocking charge will be applied.
- We will send a return authorization form and label. The form must be included inside the box and the label attached to the outside of the box. The product must be repackaged as it was originally delivered. The customer pays for the return shipping.
- Once the return has been received we will issue a credit for the product total only. Freight charges will not be refunded.
- Any credits issued are for merchandise only (no cash refunds will be made), and must be used within six (6) months of date issued.

EXCEPTIONS TO THE RETURNS POLICY:

For orders placed on FrameCloseouts.com, all sales of closeout frames represent a final sale. No returns are accepted. Due to the nature of the product sold on this website, we may not be able to fill requests for specific colors or moulding styles on the following product categories: premium wood closeouts, wood closeouts, metal closeouts, posterframe closeouts and polystyrene closeouts. Closeouts may have minor imperfections and are sold "as is". The selection of inventory varies. Frames from the pick and choose section are made to order.

For orders placed on MatDesigners.com, our mats are made to your specifications, therefore, no returns will be accepted.

THE FOLLOWING TERMS APPLY TO ALL WITH SOME EXCEPTIONS

New Accounts: All initial orders must be purchased by credit card or prepaid. We accept Visa, MasterCard, Discover, and American Express. Net Thirty (30) day terms may be available after the first order to companies with a satisfactory credit rating. After your initial order you may request a credit application for an open account. Please allow 3-5 business days for the processing of your credit application upon receipt of 3 satisfactory credit references, a completed and signed credit application, and signed Terms and Conditions. Orders purchased on terms must be paid by check by the due date or risk losing the ability to purchase on terms in the future.
